Best Large Jazz Ensemble Album

TRIBUTARIES

NEW ENGLAND JAZZ COLLABORATIVE

Tributaries is the debut album from the New England Jazz Collaborative: six new works for large jazz ensemble by four of its member composers, Jeremy Cohen, Darryl Harper, Matan Rubinstein and Sam Spear.

The music ranges from New Orleans swing and elegant balladry to Third Stream fusion and West African highlife.

"A strong and vibrant debut that covers a wide range of stylistic territory."
★★★★ DOWNBEAT Editors' Pick

"Diverse and compelling… a whirligig of complex flavors."
JAZZTIMES Top July Jazz Releases

"An awakening of the senses."
WBUR/NPR All Things Considered

"A splendid first-ever album by the ardent and admirable NEJC."
ALL ABOUT JAZZ

"A diverse range of styles, textures, and moods."
REGINA CARTER

"I find this music refreshing and uplifting."
